

Real Time Leadership Assessment Worksheet

Reflection

Whatever your total score is, take a moment to reflect on why you didn't score a point lower than you rated yourself.

In essence, can you clearly identify what you are already doing right as a leader? Only then what might you do to improve it.

Here are some reflections for your consideration.

If you were a 10 of 10 in each of these areas, what would that look like? What would you be doing?

What do you see as your strongest leadership attribute? Where do you feel you most need to grow?

Are there patterns you recognized as you went through your self assessment/exploration?

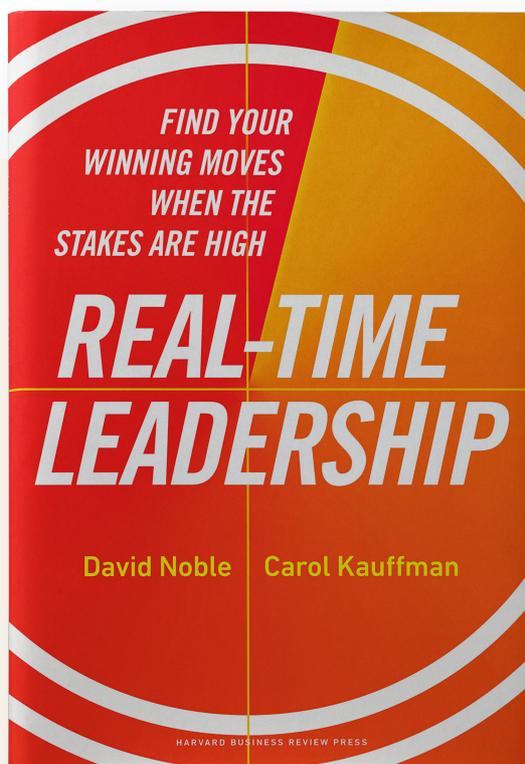

How do you think members of your team would answer these questions?

About Real Time Leadership

The best leaders, in the biggest moments, know how to read the situation, respond in the most effective way possible, and move forward. You can, too.

The hardest part of leadership is mastering the inevitable high-risk, high-stakes challenges you will face. Whether you're making a split-second decision when your business is knocked sideways or you're finding the best strategy to navigate business-critical long-term circumstances, how can you be in peak form in those most crucial moments?

Leadership coaching legends David Noble and Carol Kauffman show you how with their innovative new framework—MOVE—which equips you with the tactics you need to slow down high-stakes situations before they speed you up. You'll learn to master the moment, generate response options, and quickly evaluate those options before acting. As you get better and better at using the framework, you'll find you can recognize these moments as they arrive, like a great athlete who can read the field as a play unfolds or a great conductor who anticipates what's needed to deliver a great performance.
